Lost island

A collection of natural sheers that take us to the Lycian coast of Turkey to discover the vestiges of ancient civilizations. Inspired by this region of exceptional beauty, its sifted light and earthy tones, we discover a collection of net-woven curtains, interwoven threads or jacquards fil-coupe that stand out for their natural fibers such as linen or cotton, their vintage look and their special finishes with craft processes.

An exquisite collection that transports us to the refinement and distinction of this era, thanks to the texture and shine of its natural fabrics in silk and linen, and its seductive range of colours.
